

Parent/Guardian Code of Conduct

Remember, Youth participants play for their own enjoyment, not yours.

Don't force an unwilling athlete onto the court.

Applaud good plays by opposing players as well as yours.

Set a good example, Young people learn best by imitation.

Teach your child to always play by the rules.

Show your child that their hard work and effort matters more than a Victory.

Help your child improve skills and sportsmanship in every game. Then even in defeat, your child will be a winner.

Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a game.

Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from all sports.

Do not publicly question a referee's judgement or integrity. Recognize the value of volunteer teacher-coaches, referees and officials and give them clear signs of respect.
